CHAPTER ONE

THE IDEA

Where ideas come from, and how 100 become 20.

01

RESEARCH OF TOPIC

IDEAS COME FROM THREE PLACES.

SELECTION OF TOPIC

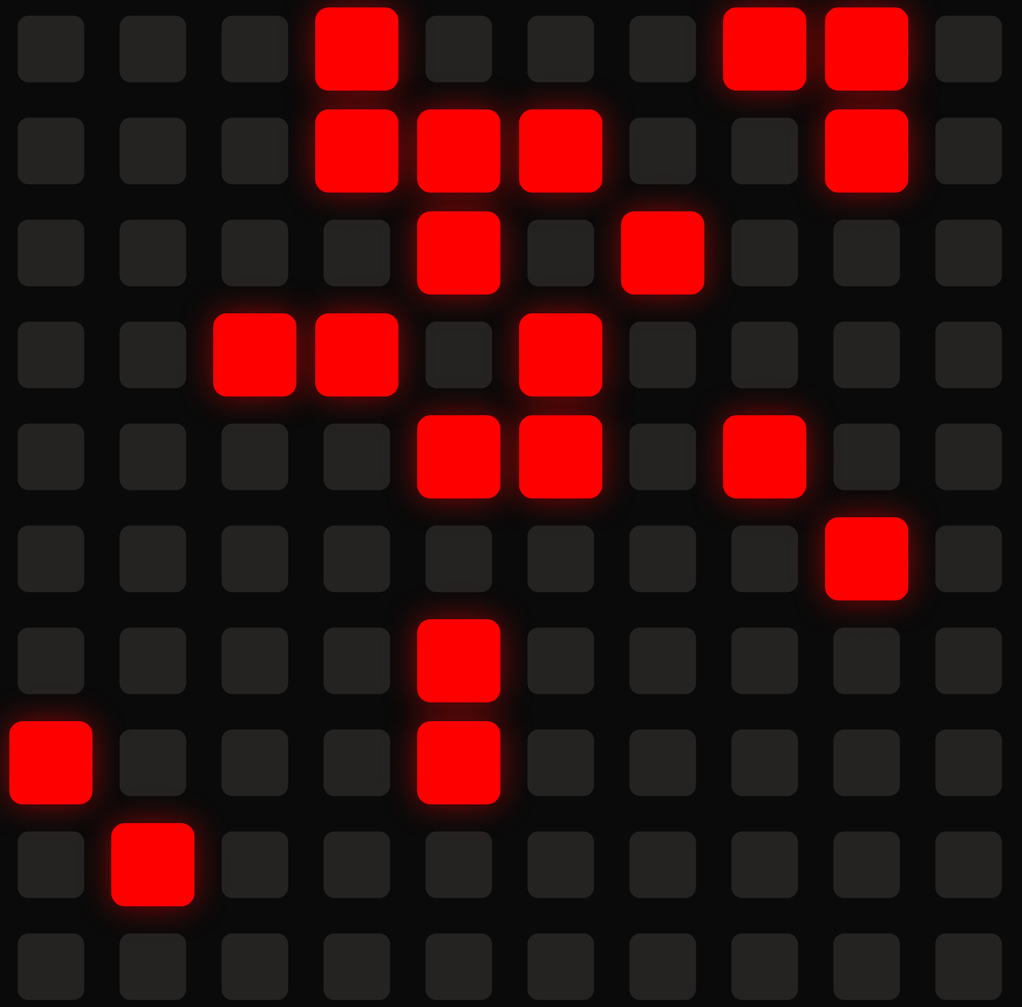

100 IDEAS IN. 20 VIDEOS OUT.

100 topics selected

50 written in the notebook

25 marked with a star

20 videos finalised

THE OTHER 80 AREN'T BAD TOPICS

THREE THINGS PICK THE FINAL 20.

TRENDS

What people are already searching and sharing right now.

MY TASTE

Topics I would watch myself.

MY STATE OF MIND

What I have the energy to make well today.

CHAPTER TWO

THE INVESTIGATION

02

Research about the topic: where facts come from, and what gets cut.

WHERE THE FACTS COME FROM

SOURCE 01

ARTICLES & WEBSITES

Written, checked, linkable.

BEST

THE TOPIC

SOURCE 03

DAILY EXPERIENCES

What you have lived yourself.

REAL LIFE

SOURCE 04

AI TOOLS

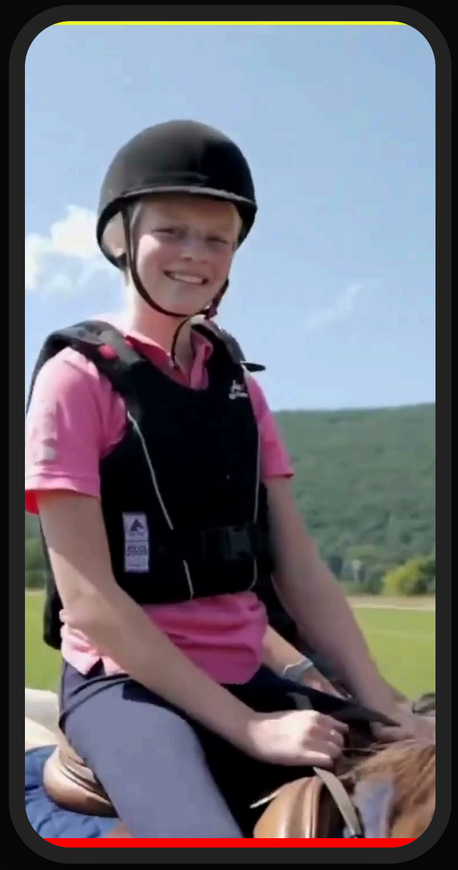

Fast for a first pass. It can be confidently wrong.

CHECK EVERY FACT

AFTER THE RESEARCH

RESEARCH BIG. SAY IT SMALL.

56 SECONDS

Cut big portions. Pick every word with care. Keep it simple enough for everyone.

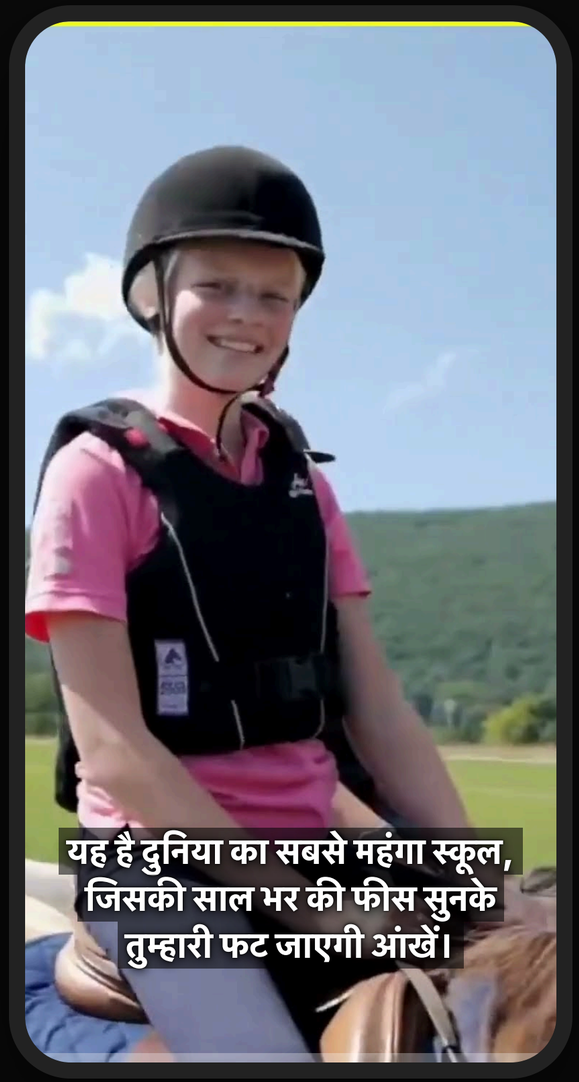

His No. 1 Short, World's Most Expensive School, runs 56 seconds.

CHAPTER THREE

THE SCRIPT

Hook, explain, punchline, reveal. Shown on one real Short.

SCRIPTING · THE HOOK

FIVE SECONDS TO STOP THE SCROLL.

HOOK · 0:00 TO 0:05

> "This is the world's most expensive school. Hear its yearly fee and your eyes will pop."

World's Most Expensive School · 200M views · opening line, translated

1 HOOK
Visual, audio or spoken. Make them stop. Never clickbait.

2 EXPLAIN FROM ZERO
Start from the basics. Don't act too smart. Relate to the viewer.

3 SIMPLE LANGUAGE
No heavy words. Use examples of famous people. Be relatable.

SCRIPTING · THE EMOTION GRAPH

KEEP THE FEELING MOVING.

Beats and times from the Short's own captions. Line height is illustrative, not measured.

HOOK
0:00 · the fee will pop your eyes

JOKE
0:13 · not the chewing-gum-under-the-bench kids

WOW
0:21 · you're in the top 0.01%

JOKE
0:45 · our school trip: the park next door

REVEAL
0:52 · about ₹1.3 crore a year

ASK IN SECOND ONE. ANSWER AT THE END.

People forget the middle. They remember how it ends, so end on the answer or a twist.

CHAPTER FOUR

THE PERFORMANCE

Recording is acting. You don't need expensive gear.

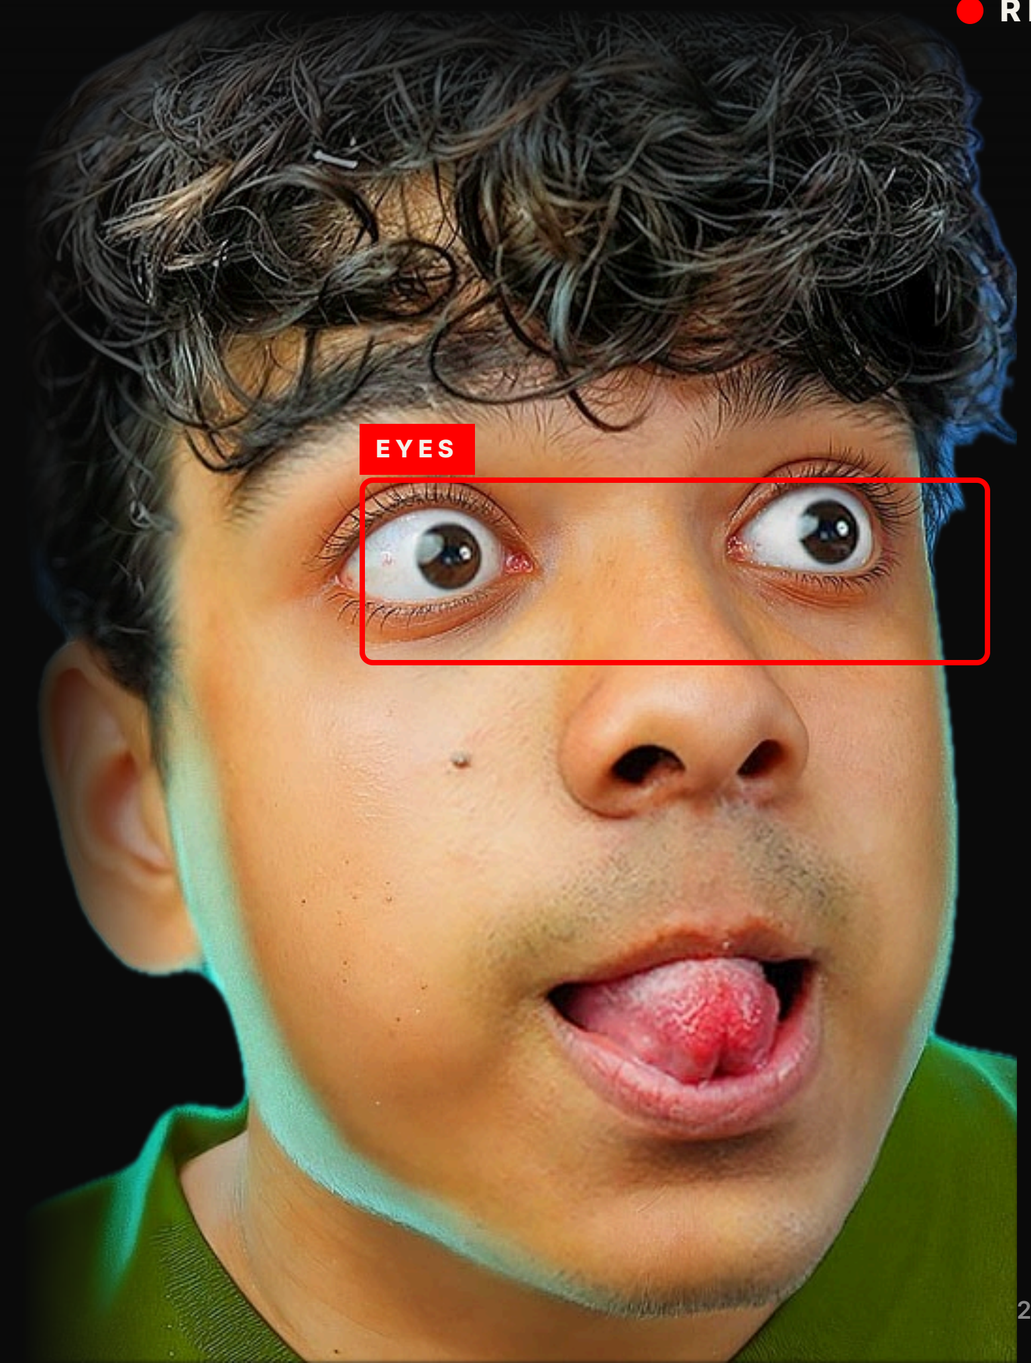

RECORDING

IT'S ACTING. THE EYES GIVE IT AWAY.

1. We take it for granted
2. Keep the energy and excitement up
3. Way of speaking, pauses, tone
4. Expressions

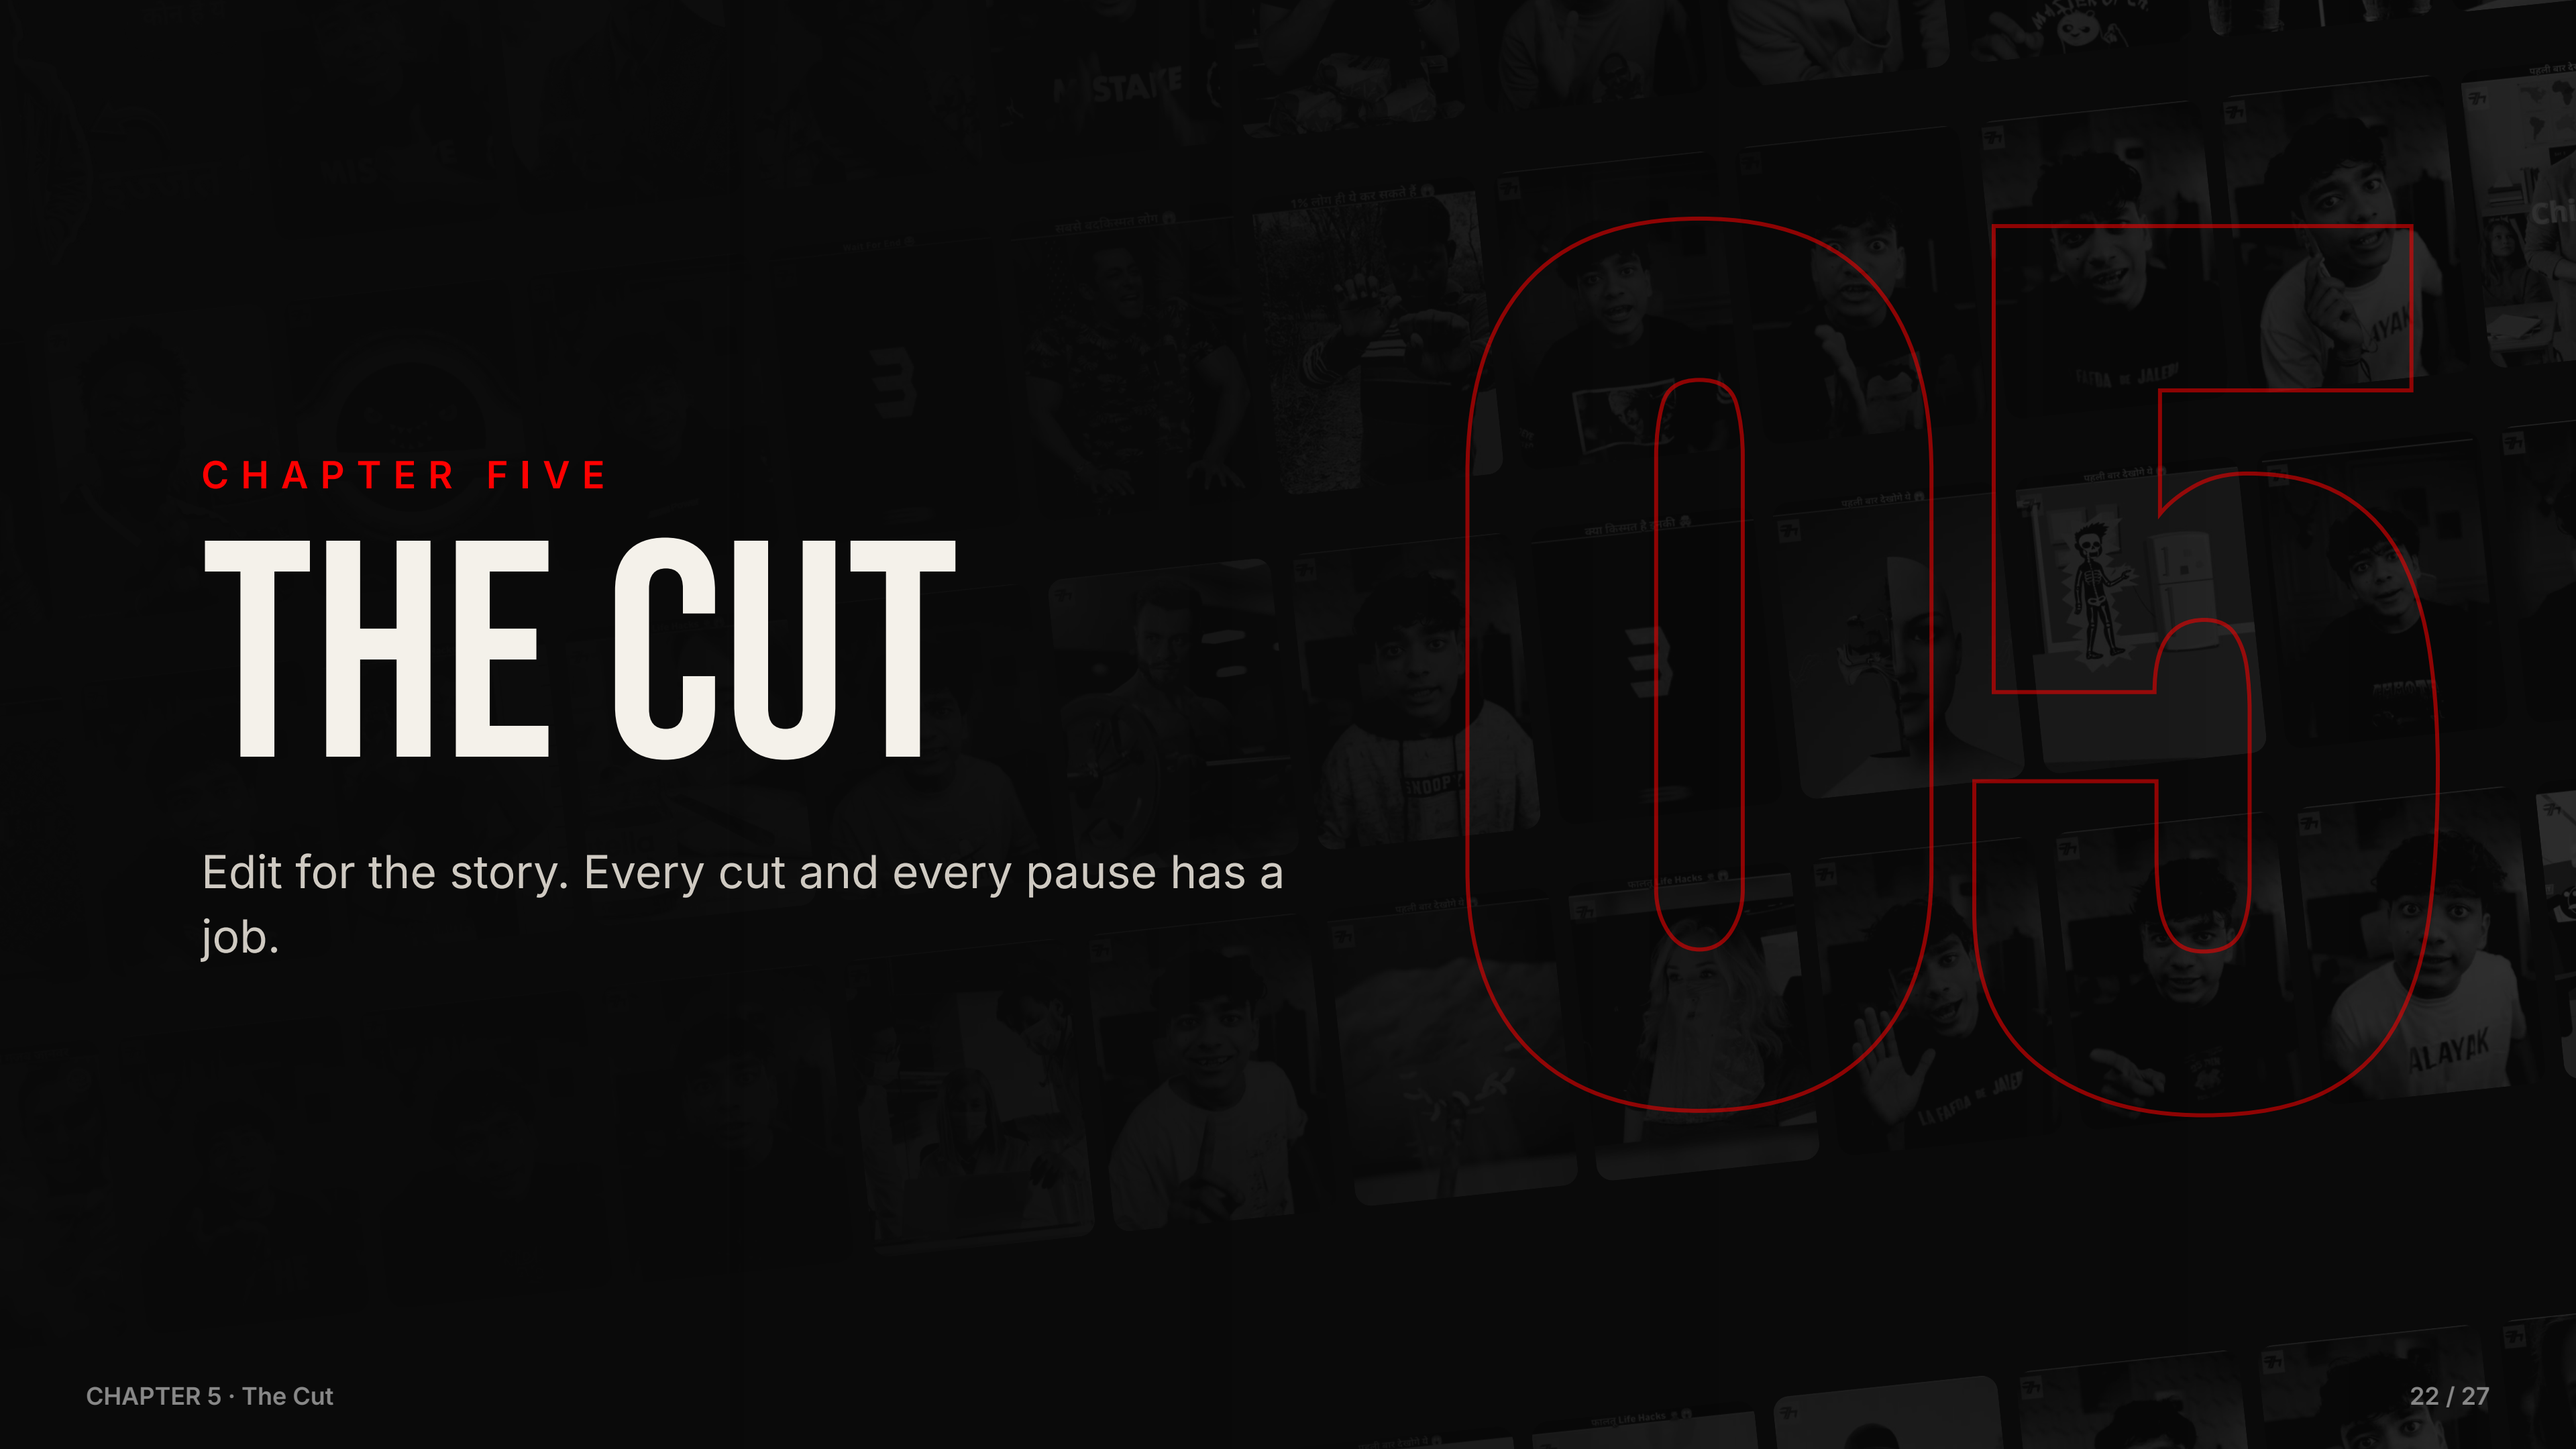

No top-tier camera needed. What matters is how good an actor you are.

CHAPTER FIVE

THE CUT

Edit for the story. Every cut and every pause has a job.

EDITING

CUT FOR THE STORY, NOT THE EFFECTS.

01 EDIT AS SIMPLE AS POSSIBLE

Don't over-edit. Stick to the storyline. It should look effortless.

02 CUTS AND PAUSES

Give sentences room. The timing of each cut matters a lot.

03 SUPER RELEVANT CLIPS

B-roll that explains the line. Seeing beats hearing.

04 PROCESS TIMING

After a heavy point, a punchline or a joke, give the brain time to land it.

EVEN MRBEAST TRADED EFFECTS FOR STORY.

Very fast, effects everywhere.

NOW

Still fast. Every effect serves the story.

So it doesn't feel heavy on the brain.

For about the last year: the edit follows the storyline. Only effects that help the story stay.

CHAPTER SIX

THE ALGORITHM

You've won Instagram. YouTube plays a different game.

SLIDE 1

TWO DIFFERENT GAMES

Instagram rewards shareable and relatable. YouTube rewards value. Example: the leg-lengthening surgery video.

SLIDE 2

SHORTS VS LONG-FORM

Shorts: tags, hashtags, titles, thumbnails aren't major factors. Long-form: titles and thumbnails matter.
